

ANH TU DUONG

anhtuduong4@gmail.com

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

Teaching Assistant, University of Oregon, Asian Studies Program, 2016-17 & 2018-2019

EDUCATION

Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich, Munich, Germany.

Ph.D., Buddhist Studies, 2025 (expected)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.

M.A., Asian Studies, June 2019

Dissertation: American Mindfulness: A Case Study of the Transnational Reception of “Mindfulness – Maindofurunesu” in Japan

Advisor: Mark Unno

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, Beppu, Japan.

B.A., Asia Pacific Studies (Comparative Culture), September 2014

OTHER EDUCATION

Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies, Yokohama, Japan.

Certificate., Intensive Language Program, June 2018

FIELDS OF SPECIALIZATION

Modern Japanese Buddhism, East Asian Buddhism, religion and modernity, religion and spirituality, transcultural studies

HONORS, GRANTS, AND AWARDS

Watanabe Foundation Scholarship, 2017-2018

Ito Foundation Scholarship, 2017-2018

Fred and Ann Notehelfer Scholarship, 2017-2018

University of Oregon Asian Studies Program Graduate Award, September 2016

Japan Student Services Organization Scholarship for Foreign Students, 2011-2014

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University Tuition Scholarship, 2010-2014

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Oregon, 2016-2017 & 2018-2019 (as Teaching Assistant)

Assisted professors in course management, grading, student advising, test review sessions, and discussion sessions for the following:

HIST 192: Japan Past & Present

JPN 305: Introduction to Japanese Literature I

ASIA 350: What is Asia?

ARH 387: Chinese Buddhist Art

HIST 387: Early China

PS 410/510: War & Peace in East Asia

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Vietnamese – native

English – proficient

Modern Chinese – proficient

Modern Japanese – proficient