

Global Intellectual History beyond Eurocentric Lenses

Connected Political Vocabularies across South and Southeast Asia, ca. 1800-2018

Organized by Milinda Banerjee, in cooperation with David Malitz, as Part of the Event Series 'Global Intellectual History as Political and Ethical Critique'

Supported by the Bachelor of Arts Program in Language and Culture, Chulalongkorn University

Program

9-10

Presentation by Milinda Banerjee

From Rulership of Dharma to Decolonial 'Humanity': Late Colonial Bhadrals, Southeast Asian Interlocutors, and (Not Entirely Erased) Muslim and Non-Brahmanical Agents – Discussion

10-10.15

break

10.15-11.15

Presentation by Simon Cubelic

Diglossia, Hyperglossia or Heteroglossia? Sanskrit and the Political Languages of 19th-century Nepal - Discussion

11.15-11.30

break

11.30-12.30

Presentation by David Malitz

The pursuit of sukha: The Theravada foundations of the Thai political discourse - Discussion

12.30-13.00

Concluding Discussion